

COOKIES POLICY

1. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

A cookie is a text file that a web server can save on your computer's hard drive to store some type of information about you as a user. Cookies are used for various purposes such as storing data for future visits, to recognize the user and avoid asking for authentication again, to know which pages you visit, or to save your preferences in customizable areas...). Normally websites use cookies to obtain statistical information about their web pages, and analyze the behavior of their clients/users.

Cookies used for any of the following purposes are exempt from compliance with the obligations established in article 22.2 of the LSSI:

- Only allow communication between the user's computer and the network.
- Strictly provide a service expressly requested by the user.

Thus, among the excepted cookies are those whose purpose is:

- "User input" cookies.
- Authentication or user identification cookies (session only).
- User security cookies
- Media player session cookies.
- Session cookies for load balancing.
- User interface customization cookies.
- Certain plug-in cookies for exchanging social content

The specific uses we make of these technologies are described in the following sections.

2. TYPES OF COOKIES

Cookies can be classified according to the following criteria:

Depending on who installs the cookie, these may be:

Own cookies: These are those that are sent to the user's terminal equipment from a computer or domain managed by the editor itself and from which the service requested by the user is provided.

Third-party cookies: These are those that are sent to the user's terminal equipment either from a computer or domain managed by us or by a third party, but the information collected by the cookies is managed by a third party other than the owner of the website.

Depending on their conservation period, cookies can be:

Session cookies: These are those that last as long as the user is browsing the Web page and are deleted when browsing ends.

Persistent cookies: They are stored on the user's terminal for a longer time, thus facilitating control of the chosen preferences without having to repeat certain parameters each time the website is visited.

Depending on their purpose, cookies can be:

Technical cookies: Technical cookies are those essential and strictly necessary for the correct functioning of a website and the use of the various options and services it offers. For example, those for session maintenance, those that allow you to use security elements, share content with social networks, etc.

Personalization cookies: They allow the user to choose or personalize features of the Web page such as language, regional configuration or type of browser.

Analytical cookies: These are those used by Web portals to create browsing profiles and be able to know user preferences in order to improve the offer of products and services. They allow you to control geographical areas of greatest interest to a user, the most popular website information, etc.

Advertising/advertising cookies: these are those that store information on user behavior obtained through continuous observation of their browsing habits, which allows the development of a specific profile to display advertising based on it.

3. COOKIES USED ON OUR WEBSITE

This website, like most websites, includes functionality provided by third parties.

Our website is a live website and new designs or third-party services may be included. This may occasionally modify the cookie settings and cause cookies not detailed in this policy to appear.

Our site does not control the cookies used by these third parties. For more information about cookies from social networks or other third-party websites, we recommend reviewing their own cookie policies.

4. INFORMATION AND OBTAINING CONSENT FOR INSTALLATION

www.nereizerdie.com will endeavor at all times to establish appropriate mechanisms to obtain the User's consent for the installation of cookies that require it. When a user accesses our website, a pop-up appears informing them of the existence of cookies and that by accepting them they give their consent for the installation of cookies.

5. HOW CAN I PREVENT THE INSTALLATION OF COOKIES?

The user can reject the installation of all cookies, according to their preferences, except those that are expressly authorized or those that have a technical profile and must be installed to guarantee the correct functioning of the website, indicating those that they wish to install or reject in the pop-up or cookie acceptance window that appears when entering the home. However, there are other ways to prevent cookies from being installed on your computer, as indicated below.

The user can configure their browser to accept, or not, the cookies they receive or so that the browser notifies them when a server wants to save a cookie. If some technical cookies are disabled, the correct functioning of some of the website's utilities is not guaranteed.

The user may exclude the storage of Google Analytics "analytical and advertising" cookies on their terminal through the exclusion systems provided by Google Analytics.

Below we also provide some examples of how to disable cookies:

1. Through the browser's own configuration:

- Internet Explorer: <http://windows.microsoft.com/es-es/windows-vista/block-or-allow-cookies>
- Firefox: <https://support.mozilla.org/es/kb/habilitar-y-deshabilitar-cookies-que-los-sitios-web>
- Safari: http://support.apple.com/kb/HT1677?viewlocale=es\_ES .

To expand this information, go to the page of the Spanish Data Protection Agency, which helps configure privacy on social networks, browsers and mobile operating systems. More information.

2. Using third-party tools:

There are third-party tools, available online, that allow users to detect cookies on each website they visit and manage their deactivation, for example:

<http://www.ghostery.com>

<http://www.youronlinechoices.com/es/>

In any case, the user can allow or block cookies, as well as delete their browsing data (including cookies) from the browser they use. Consult the options and instructions offered by your browser for this. Please note that if you accept third-party cookies, you must delete them from the browser options.

6. LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

If you choose to leave our website through links to other websites that do not belong to our entity, we will not be responsible for the privacy policies of said websites or the cookies that they may store on the user's computer.

7. HOW DO WE COLLECT AND USE IP ADDRESSES?

The Web servers will be able to automatically detect the IP address and domain name used by users.

An IP address is a number automatically assigned to a computer when it connects to the Internet. This information allows the subsequent processing of the data in order to know if you have given your consent for the installation of cookies, to carry out only statistical measurements that allow knowing the number of visits made to the Website, the order of visits, the access point. , etc.

8. INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFER

The cookies installed on our web domain are installed on our server so the data collected in them is not subject to international data transfers.

Third-party cookies installed on our website by third-party domains may be subject to international data transfer. To obtain more information about the possible international transfers of data that these cookies may entail, we recommend that you click on the "more information" section of the cookie you wish to consult.

9. UPDATE OF OUR COOKIE POLICY

This policy is reviewed periodically to ensure its validity, so it may be modified. We recommend that you visit the page regularly where we will inform you of any updates in this regard.
